Courses of Instruction.

~~;~;~~

The Normal School law provides for three courses of study: the Elementary Course, the Scientific Course and the Classical Course.

ELEMENTARY COURSE.

The object of this course is the training of teachers for the public schools. It is as follows:

PREPARATORY.—Orthography; Reading and Elocution; English Grammar and Composition; Mental and Written Arithmetic; Geography; History of the United States; Writing and Drawing; Vocal Music.

JUNIOR YEAR.

B CLASS.—Orthography; Reading and Elocution; Writing and Drawing; English Grammar; Mental Arithmetic, completed; Written Arithmetic; Political Geography, completed; History of the United States; Outlines of Teaching.

A CLASS.—Reading and Elocution; Writing and Drawing, completed; English Grammar; Written Arithmetic, completed; Elementary Algebra; History of the United States, completed; Physical Geography; Physiology; School Economy; Vocal Music.

SENIOR YEAR.

B CLASS.—Reading and Elocution, completed; English Grammar, completed; Elementary Algebra, completed; Geometry; Natural Philosophy; Constitution of the United States; Rhetoric; Mental Science; Methods of Instruction; Practice of Teaching (half the class.)

A CLASS.—Geometry, completed; Botany, Etymology, Rhetoric, completed; Book-keeping, Methods of Instruction, completed; Practice of Teaching (half the class); Review of Studies.

Though not required by law, we advise the members of this course to take at least one year's drill in Latin.

SCIENTIFIC COURSE.

The primary object of this course is the education of teachers for the higher departments of instruction in graded schools. Students can enter this course after having completed the studies of the Elementary Course, or their equivalents, and graduate in two years. to all pupils clear conceptions and thorough knowledge of whatever branches of study they may wish to pursue, the Institution is open to all of proper age, whether they have teaching in view or not. We feel confident that there are no better opportunities to obtain a general business and scientific and liberal education, or to pursue studies preparatory to those that are strictly professional, than will be afforded at this Institution.

LOCATION. BUILDINGS, &C.

INDIANA is the county seat of Indiana county. It contains a population of about 3,000. It is the terminus of the Indiana branch of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad. The thorough sympathy of all its citizens with this Institution has been evinced, not only by the contribution of $60,000 for its establishment, but by the late contribution of about $3,000 towards providing for it the completest apparatus for Chemistry and Physics of any Normal School in the United States.

The town furnishes the best church privileges that could possibly be desired, in some of the leading Christian denominations; and for several years past has sustained a firstclass Lecture Course, in which have appeared the most distinguished lecturers of the countrr.

It is believed that few communities could be found anywhere equally favorable to the highest success of such an institution as the State Normal School.

The building is new, of ample size, and furnished in the most approved manner. It is

WARMED BY STEAM

AND

LIGHTED BY GAS THROUGHOUT.

And thus it is secured against all the dirt and danger incident to a hundred fires, and especially attendant upon the use of coal oil.

The dimensions of the edifice may be best understood by conceiving of it as three buildings—one fifty feet wide by a hundred and fifty feet in length; and two others, each of which would be forty-five feet in width by a hundred and eighty feet in length, the whole blending into one building of beautiful proportions, and all four stories high above the basement. The basement story is nine feet in height, and the other four stories range from eleven and a half to fourteen feet between the floor and ceiling.

The building is remarkable for its being well lighted, well ventilated, and for its general air of cheerfulness. It has been pronounced by Professor Wickersham, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, as unquestionably THE BEST BUILDING OF THE KIND IN THE UNITED STATES.

The chapel; the dining-hall, with the accompanying apartments; the model school room; the library room; the reading room; the rooms for the Literary Societies; the Principal's rooms; the reception room; the parlor; the lecture and recitation rooms; the corridors; apartments for chemical laboratory, and private rooms for four hundred students—all are unusually well adapted to their respective uses.

The value of buildings, grounds, furniture, apparatus, &c., is estimated to be about $200,000,

The equipment in the department of CHEMISTRY and PHYSICS, is fully equal to that of any other Normal School in the United States.

TERMS OF ADMISSION, &C.

Candidates for admission to any department of the Institution, must be of good moral character; and those coming from other Institutions will be expected to bring certificates of honorable dismission.

None will be received to the Normal Department under fourteen years of age, except by special permission from the Faculty. And all are required to sign a pledge faithfully to observe all the rules and regulations of the Institution, during their connection therewith.

Students may be admitted at any time during the term, if prepared to enter the classes already formed; but it is generally very much to the advantage of the student to be present promptly at the opening of each term. And those in the regular course of study are expected to be present, in all cases at the first recitation of their respective classes, unless leave of absence has been previously obtained.

GOVERNMENT.

It is earnestly desired by the Faculty and all other officers of the Institution, that the students may be influenced to good conduct and diligence in study by higher motives than fear of punishment; and they mainly rely for the success of the School on moral and religious principle, a sense of duty, and the generous feelings which belong to young gentlemen and ladies engaged in honorable pursuits. When these motives fail, however, recourse must be had to friendly caution and warnings—to private and public admonition; and, when the nature and circumstances require it, to public suspension, dismission, or expulsion.

Whenever the Faculty are satisfied that from indolence, or whatever other cause, any student is not fulfilling, or likely to fulfill, the purpose of his connection with the Institution, or is, for any cause, an unfit member thereof, the parents or guardians of such student may be notified, that they may have an opportunity of withdrawing him. And if not withdrawn within a reasonable time, the student will be dismissed.

But we assume in the outset, that all who come to this Institution come with good and honest intent; and all are treated as worthy of confidence, affection, and respect, until they prove themselves otherwise. And our confident expectation is, that there will very seldom arise any necessity for resort to extreme measures.

ASSOCIATION OF THE SEXES.

Our purpose is to make the Indiana State Normal School, in all respects, a well-regulated home for all who attend it; in which they may become familiar with the usages of the best society. But while there are very great advantages that arise from the proper cöeducation of the sexes, special precautions are necessary to guard against all possible evil or scandal. Hence the following regulations, which will commend themselves to all as necessary and wise :

Students shall not correspond, walk, or ride with those of the opposite sex; or meet in the reception room, parlor or elsewhere, except by special permission from the PRINCI-PAL and PRECEPTRESS. Ladies and gentlemen are also expressly forbidden entering the halls appropriated to each other's respective departments without permission. They are on no condition allowed to visit each other's private rooms, except in case of severe sickness, and then only in company with the Principal or Preceptress.

These regulations we deem vital to the very existence of the Institution, and the disregard of them will be visited with the promptest and severest punishment that may be necessary to secure their faithful observance.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES.

The students meet for prayers each morning at nine o'clock; and all are expected to attend public service Sabbath forenoon, at some place in town, such as the student or his parent may select.

LITERARY SOCIETIES.

There are two Literary Societies in vigorous operation: The ERODELPHIAN and HUYGENIAN. Each of these embraces both ladies and gentlemen. The former is the same society which was originally organized as the "Fairfield Literary Society," and which, at the earnest solicitation of Dr. Fairfield, consented to this change of name.

FURNITURE OF ROOMS, &C.

Each room is furnished with a closet, table, chairs, dressing-bureau, bedstead, bed, bedding, and all necessary crockery.

kins, and all articles to be washed, must be distinctly marked with the full name of the owner. More than ten pieces in one week will be charged extra.

No deduction is made for sickness in the school; but for absence from the Institution for two consecutive weeks or more, on account of personal sickness, one half the usual charge per week is deducted.

All bills must be settled with the Treasurer, and his receipt presented to the Principal, before the student is assigned to classes.

APPROPRIATIONS TO STUDENTS.

By an Act of the Legislature the following appropriations are made by the State to Normal Students and Graduates:

1. Each student over seventeen years of age, who shall sign a paper declaring his intention to teach in the Common Schools of the State, shall receive the sum of FIFTY CENTS per week, toward defraying the expenses of tuition and boarding.

2. Each student over seventeen years of age, who was disabled in the military or naval service of the United States or of Pennsylvania, or whose father lost his life in said service, and who shall sign an agreement as above, shall receive the sum of ONE DOLLAR per week.

3. Each student who, upon graduating, shall sign an agreement to teach in the Common Schools of the State two full years, shall receive the sum of FIFTY DOLLARS.

4. Any student, to secure these benefits, must attend the school at least one term of twelve consecutive weeks, and receive instruction in the Theory of Teaching. These benefits are to be deducted from the regular expenses of board and tuition.

Applicants will be particular to state whether they intend to become TEACHERS.

EXAMINATIONS.

The Examinations for Graduation are conducted by the Faculty of the School and by a Board of Examiners.

The Faculty first examine the candidates for graduation, and, if satisfied with their qualifications, refer them to the Board of Examiners for further examination.

The Board of Examiners consists of the State Superintendent of Common Schools, the Principal of the school at which the examination is held, the Principal of some other Normal School designated by the State Superintendent and two County Superintendents of the Normal School district in which the school is located; also appointed by the State Superintendent.

The Board of Examiners will test the knowledge of the candidates upon all the branches of study in the course in which they are examined; special attention being given to the Science and Art of Teaching. A Thesis upon some educational subject will be required as a part of the examination.

DIPLOMAS.

A student graduating in either course will receive a diploma, in which will be named the branches of that course, and which will confer upon him the degree of BACHELOR OF THE ELEMENTS, BACHELOR OF THE SCIENCES, or BACHELOR OF THE CLASSICS, according to the course in which he graduates.

A regular graduate, who has continued his studies for two years, and has practiced his profession during two full annual terms in the Common Schools of the State, may receive, upon presenting to the Faculty and Board of Examiners a certificate of good moral character and skill in the Art of Teaching, from the Board or Boards of Directors by whom he was employed, countersigned by the proper County Superintendent, a second diploma, constituting him a Master in the course in which he graduated, and conferring one of the following corresponding degrees:

MASTER OF THE ELEMENTS,

MASTER OF THE SCIENCES,

MASTER OF THE CLASSICS.

Practical teachers, who have not attended the Normal School as students, may obtain a Diploma or State Certificate on the following corresponding conditions :

1. All applicants must be twenty-one years of age, and must have taught in the Common Schools during three full annual terms.

2. They must present certificates in regard to moral character and skill in practical teaching, similar to those presented by the regular graduates, and have them signed by the same school officers.

3. They must be examined in all the branches in the course in which they desire a Diploma, by the Faculty and Board of Examiners, at the time of the annual examinations at the schools where application is made.

4. A Thesis on some educational subject will be required as part of the examination.

The Diplomas granted in accordance with these condiditions, will enumerate the branches of study in which the holder was found proficient, and confer upon him the professional degree to which the extent of his knowledge may entitle him.

All the Diplomas are authorized and furnished by the State, and exempt those who hold them from any further examination by authorities acting under the provisions of our Common School laws.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

1. OF ROOMS, FURNITURE, &c.

1. All students, except such as reside in town, are required to board in the Institution buildings, except by special permission from the Principal to do otherwise.

2. All wrestling, running, scuffling, or other rude and boisterous noises, are expressly forbidden at any time, in any part of the Institution buildings.

3. Students are required to sweep their own rooms daily, previous to the sweeping of the halls in the morning; and are not allowed to sweep the dustinto the halls at any other time.

4. No student shall throw water, dirt, or anything offensive or dangerous from the doors or windows of the building at any time.

5. No student is allowed to keep carbon oil, camphine, or burning fluid of any kind in the building; and all lights are required to be extinguished at ten o'clock in the evening, except in case of sickness.

6. Students, on receiving the keys of their rooms, are required to deposit with the Steward fifty cents, as security for their safe return.

7. Damage done to any of the buildings or other property of the Institution, shall be paid for by the author or authors; or in default of them, the damage will be assessed upon the students as a whole; or upon those occupying a particular portion of the building, as the proper authorities shall determine.

8. Damage to rooms occupied by students shall be charged to the occupants, unless it shall appear that they were done by others; and unless such damages shall be reported by the occupants to the Steward within two days; or, if done in their absence, within two days after their return, with such information as they may be able to give of the authors of the injury.

9. No student may make or cause to be made any fixture, improvement, repair or alteration in his room, except under the direction of the Steward; and anything done in violation of this rule shall be accounted damage, and treated accordingly.

10. Students are not allowed to exchange rooms, or transfer their rooms to others at any time, unless they have previously obtained permission from the Principal. And no article of furniture shall be removed from one room to another without permission from the Steward. The Steward will visit each room at least once a week, that, if damaged, it may be repaired; or, if the occupant has neglected to clean it, it may be cleaned at his expense.

11. Students are required to be in their own rooms during study hours, unless occupied in recitation, or leave of absence be granted by the teacher in charge. And all loud talking, singing, playing on musical instruments, or other noises that interfere with study, are forbidden.

12. The use of tobacco, in any form, is strictly prohibited in the buildings, or upon the grounds of the Institution.

13. Every student is required to take a room-mate, unless excused by the Principal, in which case he will be required to pay fifty cents a week extra.

14. Visitors and students rooming out of the building are not permitted to call at the rooms of boarders, or stop in their rooms over night, unless by special permission from the Principal. 15. Students are strictly prohibited from using the main stairway in the centre of the building, except by special permission.

16. Students are not allowed to receive or entertain visitors on the Sabbath day.

17. Students are earnestly requested to wear slippers in the building.

18. Students desiring meals for their friends will report the same to the Steward.

II. STUDIES, RECITATIONS, &c.

1. No student is allowed to enter any class to which he has not been assigned by the Principal, or to leave a class to which he has once been assigned, without his written permission.

2. Students are required to be punctual in their attendanee upon their classes. Permission to be absent from a recitation should always be obtained, if possible, before the absence occurs. If this is not possible, it should be presented at the first recitation afterward.

3. Pupils absent from their classes shall present a written excuse to the teacher of the class, signed by the Principal; or, in case of sickness in the building, by the teacher in charge of the hall in which they room.

4. At each recitation a record is kept by the teachers of each pupil's standing. This record is from 10 to 0: the former meaning perfect, the latter a failure. The average of these marks will be furnished on application to each student, or to his parents or guardian, at the middle or end of any term. No student whose average falls below seven can be allowed to advance from one class to another.

5. All students are required to attend such Rhetorical Exercises as are assigned them; and a record of their diligence and proficiency in these exercises shall be kept in a manner similar to that in ordinary recitations.

6. Every student is required to be present at the examination of his class at the close of the term, unless especially excused. Absence from examination without previous permission, or manifestly good reason, will be deemed a high offense, punishable by public reproof, suspension or dismission, as may be judged proper.

7. Students are expected to prepare their lessons in their rooms, and, when not reciting, may occupy them; but if negligent in preparing them, special rooms will be assigned them to study under the supervision of a teacher.

8. All students who are tardy, unnecessarily, at meals, shall forfeit them; all shall conduct themselves at table in a becoming manner, and no one must leave before the signal of dismissal without good reason, and permission from a teacher.
